Judge Kurt T. Rager Named 2008 Presiding Judge of County Court's Sixth Judicial District

Judge Kurt T. Rager has been named County Court Presiding Judge of the 6th Judicial District (Burt, Cedar, Dakota, Dixon, Dodge, Thurston, and Washington Counties) beginning January 15, 2008. The Nebraska Supreme Court approved the nomination of Judge Rager, whose name was submitted by his fellow county court judges for the leadership position.

Judge Rager was appointed to the county court bench July 9, 2001 by former governor Mike Johanns. Prior to his appointment he was a private practice attorney in Omaha and South Sioux City, Nebraska.

As presiding judge, Judge Rager has primary responsibility for overseeing the delivery of county court services within their judicial district. He will also serve as the liaison to other agencies of local and state government for the courts of the district and to the Nebraska State Bar Association and the press.

Presiding judges also bear the responsibility for overseeing personnel matters for the district and provide county courts in the area with direction in matters of local district policy.
